WHAT IS THE ROLE OF THE SEAC?

The Einstein Charter Special Education Advisory Committee is an opportunity for parents, staff, and community stakeholders to offer advice and provide feedback regarding Special Education policies, procedures, and resources. The members of ECS and SEAC shall participate in and spearhead activities in the community to enhance the level of knowledge, support, and collaboration about Special Education.

SEAC Membership

The number of council members and composition of the council shall be determined by the local public school superintendent or the administrative head of each charter school or other public school. However the council's membership shall be composed as follows:

- Fifty percent (50%) of the membership shall be parents (who are not employees of Einstein Charter Schools) or legal guardians of students with an exceptionality, other than gifted and talented, who are enrolled in a school under the jurisdiction of or who are receiving special education services from the public school governing authority.
- At least one (1) member shall be a teacher, principal, or paraprofessional who serves students with exceptionalities and who work with Einstein Charter Schools.
- Ten percent (10%) of the membership shall be special education stakeholders.

Einstein Charter Schools empowers all students to achieve financial well-being and embrace the power of choice through equitable educational experiences.

- The council shall be composed of at least eight (8) members.

How often does the SEAC meet?

The SEAC shall meet at least three times a year.
